OTHER STRONG POINTS OF HAUTE-SAVOIE

Bar turning and mechatronics are an emblematic industry of Haute-Savoie with over 400 establishments. Almost two-thirds of French companies and staff working in this field are located in the Vallée de l'Arve, a true international hub.

Nearby, ID CENTER, a technocentre located in Cluses, is focused on promoting local mechanical and machining skills to help these companies grow.

This showcase of the region's fantastic know-how, its R&D and operational expertise, provides companies with tools to increase their competitiveness. ID CENTER is also home to several organisations such as SNDEC or CETIM (which is involved in Metal Additive Manufacturing).

Competitive hubs and professional clusters and associations in Haute-Savoie also contribute to the dynamics and influence of key sectors in the department.

FOCUS

IMAGERY AND CREATIVE INDUSTRIES

Each year, Annecy hosts the Festival international du film d'animation (International Animated Film Festival), a must-see in animation, and the Marché international du film d'animation (International Animated Film Market -Mifa), a professional meeting place for animation industries. The city has become the international reference in this field. Annecy, as the creative imagery capital, has a network of connected businesses such as the CITIA, a skills and resources centre on moving image, helps promote animation to a large audience, develop a local economic hub for creative industries but also supports training and education in "animated image" (by offering higher education training with the Ecole des Gobelins).
